1. "Production of Starch from Sweetpotatoes, Including Comments Regarding Manufacture of White Potato Starch" by R. T. Balch and H. S. Paine, Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, vol. 23, #11, pp. 1205-13, November, 1931.
2. "Chemical and Physical Properties of Sweetpotato Starch " by F. H. Thurber, Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, Vol. 25, #5, pp. 565-8, May, 1933.
3. "Improved Method for Production of Sweetpotato Starch" by F. H. Thurber, Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, vol. 25, #8, pp. 919-20, August, 1933.
4. "The Purification of Sweet and White Potato Starches" by F. H. Thurber and H. S. Paine, Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, Vol. 26, #5, pp. 567-9, May 1934.
5. "Starch and Other Products from Sweetpotatoes" by H. S. Paine, Condensed Proceedings of the Southern Chemurgic Conference, File No. 69, published about December 1, 1936.
6. "Recent Developments in the Production of Sweetpotato Starch", by H. S. Paine, Potato World, Vol. 6 #8, pp. 8-13, August, 1937.
7. "Temperature and Starch-Sugar Change in Sweet Potatoes" by E. F. Hopkins and J. K. Phillips, Science, vol. 86, #2240, pp. 523-5, December 3, 1937.
8. "A New and Rapid Dehydration Process for Vegetables" by E. F. Hopkins, Science, vol. 87, #2247, pp. 71-2, January 21, 1938.
9. "Manufacture of Sweetpotato Starch in the United States" by H. S. Paine, F. H. Thurber, R. T. Balch and W. R. Richee, Industrial and Engineering Chemistry, vol. 30, # 12, pp. 1331-48, December, 1938.
10. "Sweetpotatoes as Raw Material" by H. S. Paine, F. H. Thurber, R. T. Balch and W. R. Richee, Chemical and Metallurgical Engineering, vol. 46, #2, pp. 69-71, February, 1939.
